

WATERWAY WINS FIRST VICTORY

Efforts to Invalidate Bill
By Added Amendments
Are Defeated

TO COME UP TUESDAY

Senator Lewis Points to Value of Project in Event U. S. Ever
Becomes Involved in War

PASS APPROPRIATION BILLS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—Governor Dunne's $5,000,000, deep waterway bill, providing for a continuous water route between the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico won its first victory in the legislature today when all efforts to invalidate it by added amendments were voted down. The measure which provides for the construction of an eight foot channel connecting the Chicago drainage canal and the Illinois river will come up for final action in the house Tuesday.

Lewis Advocates Plan.
In advocating the waterway plan before a joint session of the legislature today United States Senator J. Hamilton Lewis said that it was his idea that in the event that the United States ever became involved in international war which might make it expedient to remove the national capital from Washington to an inland point, which undoubtedly would be Chicago, such a waterway would prove of the greatest value. He said that it would be used in the transportation of munitions of war, in the same manner that the European waterways are now being used.

United States Senator L. Y. Sherman, also addressed the legislature endorsing the practicability and economy of the bill.
The joint resolution providing that members of the legislature be reimbursed at the rate of two cents a mile for railroad fare expended in traveling between their homes and legislative sessions at the state capital, was passed by the senate by a vote of 26 to 16.

Pass Appropriation Bills.
Bills appropriating $12,190,614.88 were passed by the legislature today. Of this amount $5,200 was appropriated by the senate and the remainder by the house. Following are some of the bills:

Omnibus appropriation for charitable institution buildings and repairs appropriates $1,955,622.08 for two years and re-appropriates the following:
Elgin State Hospital. . . $ 15,500
Chicago State Hospital. . . 179,000
Anna State Hospital. . . 4,500
Watertown State Hospital. . . 15,500
Alton State Hospital. . . 705,000
Of this $300,000 is for a new insane hospital; state colony for epileptics, $500,000.

Omnibus appropriation for the ordinary expenses of the state charitable institutions for the next two years beginning July 1st, for first year $4,153,274.07 and for the second year $4,557,508.73.
Creating a commission and appropriating $50,000 for procuring a site and erecting an armory for the National guard at Monmouth.

Creating a Vicksburg military statue commission and appropriating $50,000 for the erection of statues to General Grant and other generals from Illinois in the National Cemetery, Vicksburg.

Attack Defers Action.

Led by Senator John Denver of Cook county a number of senators today made a concerted attack upon the bill appropriating $91,000 for buildings and other improvements to be made upon the state fair grounds. As a result of the attack action upon the bill which had been called upon second reading by Senator Curtis, was deferred.

A new insurance bill providing for the supervision by the state insurance superintendent of all fire insurance rates was introduced in the lower house of the legislature late today by the insurance committee to take the place of the administration insurance bill which was killed by the committee early today after nearly an all night session.

At about the same time that the new bill was introduced as a substitute in the house, the original administration bill was introduced in the senate.

Provides for State Commission.
The administration bill was drafted by Rufus M. Potts, state insurance superintendent, and provided for the creation of a state commission for the making of fire insurance rates.

Under the new bill fire insurance companies would be compelled to submit their rates to the state superintendent of insurance for approval.

The senate passed the bill repealing the special charter of the city of Jacksonville and placing that municipality under the general law. The Barr bill, permitting the Chi-

CONFIRM REPORTS OF A COALITION MINISTRY

ASQUITH AND BONAR LAW MAKE STATEMENTS IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Prime Minister States That he and the Foreign Secretary Will Continue in Office and That no Change in Policy of Prosecuting War With all Energy is Contemplated.

LONDON, May 19.—(11 p. m.)—The formation of a non-partisan cabinet for the period of the war is an established fact. The spokesmen for the two great rival parties, Premier Asquith and Andrew Bonar Law, made statements to the house of commons today confirming the reports of a coalition ministry which several newspapers launched yesterday. The prime minister said that nothing had been definitely arranged but three things were certain—that the prime minister and foreign secretary will continue in office; that no change is contemplated in the policy of the country of prosecuting the war with all energy and that the re-constitution of the cabinet will not mean any surrender by persons or parties of their political principles.

Andrew Bonar Law, in endorsing this statement, said: "Our sole consideration is what will be best for finishing the war successfully."

Change Surprises Country.
Not for many years has a political transformation so overwhelmed the country with surprise. Only a week ago, Premier Asquith said in the house of commons that there was no thought of a reconstruction of the ministry.

The rapid pressure of events both abroad and at home has driven the government to a change of heart and brought together the "elder statesmen" to deal with a situation charged with critical elements.

The events abroad have been the severe reverses of the Russian armies which may be followed by more powerful German opposition to the allies' lines in France and Belgium and the slow progress of the operations against the Turks, whose campaign is being conducted largely by German officers.

The events at home have been the friction between Winston Spencer Churchill and Lord Fisher in the admiralty, which one writer describes as the nerve center of the nation and the attacks upon both the war office and the workmen for their alleged failure to supply the army with sufficient ammunition.

Parliament adjourned tonight until June 3rd. Before its next meeting the new cabinet will be formed and the first act will be to challenge a vote of confidence from the house of commons to demonstrate its position as representing the whole house.

Express Confidence in Asquith.
The Liberal members held a meeting tonight and expressed confidence in Premier Asquith, who explained the government's position to them. The Conservatives also held a party council.

Today's reports have changed yesterday's forecasts of the personnel of the ministry in only two or three details. There is no doubt that the re-organization of the government will mean the snuffing out of some high political ambitions. It is believed that the most prominent members slated for retirement are Lord Haldane, lord high chancellor; the Marquis of Crewe, secretary of state for India; Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for colonies and Augustine Berill, chief secretary for Ireland. The Marquis of Crewe and Mr. Berill will go willingly. Mr. Harcourt, may be raised to the peerage and promoted to be viceroy of India.

Churchill to Leave Admiralty.
Lord Fisher, first sea lord of the admiralty, was at his office at the admiralty today, which was taken to mean that the government had refused to accept his resignation making inevitable the departure from the admiralty of Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty. It is believed by many that Mr. Churchill will be given the Marquis of Crewe's post folio at the India office, or that he will succeed Mr. Harcourt as secretary of state for colonies.

Mr. Churchill is a major in the territorial and it would cause little surprise if he should prefer the fighting line to a cabinet position which would give him no opportunity for his aggressive nature.

NATURAL GAS CONVENTION

Cincinnati, O., May 19.—The annual convention of the Natural Gas Association of America opened here yesterday, and will extend until Thursday night. Matters of interest to the trade and reports on the flows in different sections will be the principal topics of discussion.

cago surface and elevated roads to consolidate, was reported out and recommended for passage late tonight by the senate public utilities commission.

The same committee killed Senator Barr's bill repealing the present two cent passenger rate and placing the fixing of rates in the hands of the state public utilities commission. With this bill the railroads hoped to obtain an increase in passenger fare rates.

War News Summarized

The question of whether Italy will enter the war is still unsettled, but the majority of the despatches from Rome indicate that Italy soon will take her place among the belligerents.

It is stated that the ambassadors of Germany and Austria are preparing to leave the Italian capital and servants having in charge heavy baggage bearing the monogram of Prince Vonbuelow, German ambassador to Italy, have arrived at Chiasso, Switzerland.

A non-partisan cabinet for Great Britain for the duration of the war is assured. Premier Asquith and Andrew Bonar Law, leaders of the two great parties, have confirmed the report of a coalition ministry.

In the western theatre of war only unimportant engagements have taken place owing to the inclemency of the weather. In the east stubborn fighting continues in Galicia. An Austrian official statement says that the Teutonic allies have repulsed strong Russian forces northeast of Jaroslau.

The Austro-German forces have captured Sieniawa and forced a crossing of the river San, taking 7,000 prisoners. North of Sambar the Teutonic allies have captured places which have been defended stubbornly by the enemy Vienna claims.

The allied fleets are continuing their attack on the Dardanelles. A despatch from Mytilene says that they have silenced the Turkish fortifications at Kild Bahr on the European side, at the end of the narrowest Constant-inople.

It is said that the fall of Nagara on the Asiatic side, opposite Kild Bahr, is imminent.

DENOUNCES FINANCIAL PRACTICES OF RIGGS NATIONAL BANK OFFICERS

Untermyer Sulogizes the "Ardor and Enthusiasm" of Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams.

Washington, May 19.—Denunciation of the financial practices of officers of the Riggs National bank and the "ardor and enthusiasm" of Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams, characterized the argument today of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the treasury officials, supporting the government's motion to dismiss the temporary injunction secured by the bank. Mr. Untermyer occupied the entire day in court with an argument which dealt with the history of the Riggs' bank and its relations with the National City Bank of New York and the government for the past twenty years. Final argument against the motion to dismiss will be made tomorrow by former Senator Bailey.

Difficulties between the bank and treasury officials, which culminated in the suit, Mr. Untermyer argued, were due not to the arbitrary use of power by the comptroller, but to reforms instituted by Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams which abolished illicit favors the bank had enjoyed in the past and aroused the resentment of the bank's officers. The penalties imposed by the comptroller, he said, were legal and fully justified by the conditions he found. He reviewed allegations of "dummy loans" of excessive loans to officers and of a stock brokerage business conducted by the bank's officers through the bank, in violation of the law, and asserted that the comptroller was performing his duty in insisting that he be acquainted with the details of all these transactions.

DISAPPROVES ATTITUDE OF SUFFRAGISTS TOWARD WILSON

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—Disapproval of the attitude of the congressional union of suffragists toward President Wilson was voiced today by Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Union of Women. "Badgering of President Wilson at this time of national stress by members of the congressional union of suffragists is a form of militant activities," Mrs. McCormick said. "All good suffragists ought to protest against any such methods to obtain a hearing before the president. The president has too much of international importance on his mind to be worried by anything that can be spared him. He has always received delegations of suffragists most cordially when it was possible."

HEAVY RAINFALL BRINGS MANY RIVERS NEAR FLOOD STAGE

KANSAS CITY, May 19.—Hundreds of small streams are out of their banks and many larger creeks and rivers are approaching flood stage in Kansas, northern Oklahoma and western Missouri.

This district has received from two to five inches of rain in the last 48 hours and in many sections rain is still falling.
The rainfall was heaviest through the central part of Kansas, four inches falling at Topeka and more than five inches at Wichita. From Wichita west and south into Oklahoma the average fall is reported as three inches. Joplin, Mo. also reports a precipitation of three inches in the vicinity.

PRESIDENT WILSON WILL AWAIT GERMAN REPLY

WILL MAKE NO FURTHER REPRESENTATIONS TO ALLIES AT PRESENT

Data Concerning Detention of American Cargoes Has Not Been Completed—Bryan Announces no Immediate Answer is Expected from Germany.

Washington, May 19.—President Wilson will await a reply from Germany to the recent American note before making further representations to the allies on alleged violations of international law in their commercial embargo on Germany.

This was made clear today in official quarters where it was explained that data concerning detentions of American cargoes had not yet been completed and that moreover the notes under preparation would not be sent now in any event of an unwillingness on the part of the president to have the situation with Germany complicated by the American government's correspondence with Great Britain.

It is understood that be the president's position that the case of the United States as set forth in its note to Germany should be disposed of irrespective of any contemplated move with regard to the allies. The idea prevailing in some quarters that representations to the allies might influence the character of the German reply is not shared, note to Germany should be understood to hold that the German government should be given confidence that the United States would do its utmost to safeguard its rights in all cases. The controversy between the United States and Germany it is pointed out involves the safety of the lives of American citizens at sea and necessitates a prompt understanding.

The fact that the United States is preparing to make what are described in some quarters as vigorous representations to the allies on the subject of contraband, however, already has had a noticeable effect in the action of the United States is awaited with keen interest. Secretary Bryan announced today that no immediate answer was expected from Germany to the recent American note. "It may take several days," he said, "we don't know exactly."

The German government is occupied just now with the Austro-Italian crisis and at best the reply to the American note will require several days of preparation because of the numerous legal points involved.
Would Affect Response.
The outbreak of war between Italy and Austria it is generally believed here would affect Germany's response, because if cut off from the Mediterranean any restriction of submarine warfare from a military point of view would take on a much more serious aspect.

Government officials today cleared up a misapprehension that has existed in many quarters as to the extent which the American note insists upon a restriction of activities of German submarines. The idea that a complete abandonment of the submarine as a commerce destroyer is asked for is incorrect, it was stated. Should Germany return to the practice of torpedoing merchantmen after giving them warning and time to save all members of the crew, ground for objection here, it is admitted, would be for the most part removed.

Prior to the drowning of Leon C. Thresher when the British Steamer Falaba was torpedoed on March 28, no American lives were lost and the German submarine commanders sank scores of ships.
Reports are not Confirmed.
Reports that Germany had decided to suspend submarine attacks on merchantmen were not confirmed today at either the German or Austrian embassies or the state department. It is known that both the German and Austrian ambassadors cabled their governments advising extreme care in the submarine attacks on vessels carrying Americans, but they had no word today as to whether any new instructions to submarine commanders had followed the receipt of their suggestions. Today a British ship the Drumcree was torpedoed.

In anticipation of the report that Germany would point to the carrying of arms and ammunition aboard the Lusitania as a violation of American statutes it was learned today, officials of the state department consulted the officials of the navy department on the subject.

The rulings and opinions of legal officers of the government as late as 1911, it was found, construed the statutes as applying to self-exploding material and not to small arms and ammunition.
GIRL LEAPS FROM WINDOW; ELOPES WITH YOUNG MAN.
Miss Trenna Knowles, the pretty 15-year old daughter of H. A. Knowles of Virginia, Ill., leaped from her bedroom window Tuesday and joined George Treadway, a youth of 20, who recently returned from a two years' service in the United States navy.

They went to Ashland to catch a train for Hannibal, Mo., where they were married.
Their whereabouts were made known yesterday Harold Reynolds, a friend.

MINISTER ARRAIGNS COLORADO FUEL & IRON COMPANY'S METHODS

Justifies Revolt of Strikers Against Military and Other Constitutional Authority.

Washington, May 19.—(While John D. Rockefeller Jr., waited here again today to testify before the industrial relations commission in a supreme inquiry into the recent strike against the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, the commission listened to an arraignment of that concern's methods by Rev. Eugene S. Gaddis, a Methodist clergyman, formerly in charge of the company's sociological department.

Chairman Walsh, who summoned Mr. Rockefeller to testify, relating to correspondence made public since the original inquiry in New York, said tonight that he surely would be called tomorrow. Mr. Rockefeller did not appear at the hearing today but remained within call. He will take the stand as soon as Rev. Daniel S. McCormick, pastor of a Presbyterian church in one of the Colorado company's mining camps at Sunrise, Wyo., completes his testimony.

Rev. Mr. Gaddis said he was discharged from the sociological department of the Colorado company last February after making a personal appeal to Mr. Rockefeller to be allowed to continue important betterment work among the miners. He justified the revolt of the strikers against military and other constitutional authority in Colorado on the ground that laws for improvement of the miners' condition had been ignored and there was no other way left to seek a remedy.

"Technically the terrible strike of the Colorado miners was lost," said Mr. Gaddis, "but in reality it was one of the greatest labor victories ever achieved in the United States because today the coal operators have their ear to the ground and they will be very careful, indeed, in the future."

FOUR CHICAGO UNIONS VOTE TO REJECT COMPROMISE OFFER

Union Leaders Announce Voting Indicates Proposition Will be Rejected by a Large Majority.

Chicago, May 19.—Four of the thirty unions of carpenters in Chicago have voted overwhelmingly to reject the compromise offer of the eighteen months of a year term if the men would return to work at the old scale for the first eighteen months of the proposed three year contract. Union leaders announced tonight that the voting going on among the various locals indicated that the proposition would be rejected by a large majority.

Members of the contractors' association met and decided to prepare for a siege. The matter of bringing in non-union carpenters was proposed and according to leaders among the employers probably will be formulated into a definite plan. Those active in each of the opposing sides of the labor controversy predicted a fight that probably would last all summer.

PRESIDENT'S YACHT ANCHORS IN RIVER BELOW WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Yacht Mayflower, returning from New York with President Wilson and his party anchored tonight in the Potomac river below Washington and will dock at the navy yard tomorrow morning. The vessel was met at Pine Point, Md., 90 miles down the river, by the pilot early this morning and could have easily made the city tonight. This was not attempted however, it being decided to give the president another night on the water before his return to work.

Reports indicated that the return voyage from New York had been somewhat rough.

NO EVIDENCE THAT TORPEDO WAS FIRED

LONDON, May 19.—(11:15 p. m.)—While it is considered possible in official circles that there was a submarine in the vicinity of the Cunard Line Steamer Transylvania, as stated by some of the passengers on that ship, which arrived at Glasgow from New York on May 17th, it is said there is no evidence that a torpedo was fired at the steamship.

MAY REACH VERDICT IN LIBEL CASE TODAY

BOWERS SPENDS THREE HOURS IN SUMMING UP FOR ROOSEVELT

IVINS MAY CONCLUDE CASE FOR PLAINTIFF WITHIN AN HOUR THIS MORNING—BOWERS ASSERTS ACTION "WAS THE PURPOSED ACT OF THE MACHINE TO DESTROY COL. ROOSEVELT'S USEFULNESS."

Syracuse, N. Y., May 19.—John M. Bowers, chief counsel for Theodore Roosevelt in the trial of William Barnes' suit for libel, spent three hours today in summing up for the benefit of the jury the case of the defense. Near the conclusion of his address he asserted that the action brought by the former chairman of the Republican state committee "was the purpose act of the machine to destroy Colonel Roosevelt's usefulness."

May Conclude Within Hour.
Mr. Bowers used up much more time than had been allotted him. For that reason the summing up of the case of the plaintiff was postponed until tomorrow morning. William M. Ivins, chief counsel for Mr. Barnes, said tonight that he might conclude within an hour.

Supreme court Justice William M. Andrews, presiding, will then deliver his charge to the jury. That completed, the jury will retire and begin deliberations. A verdict may be returned late tomorrow.

In his address Mr. Bowers discussed the testimony given by Mr. Barnes and Colonel Roosevelt and their respective witnesses. He urged that the jury consider "the evasions; and in a sense, the denials" of Mr. Barnes. He urged a comparison between the two principals. Mr. Bowers questioned the truth of many of the statements made by Mr. Barnes and presented exhaustive arguments designed to convince the jury that his client was justified in saying the things he did about Mr. Barnes. The attorney placed especial emphasis upon the testimony regarding the deadlock in the legislature in 1911, over the election of a United States senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. In this connection he asked why Mr. Barnes would have endeavored to interest the Republican minority in the election of an independent Democrat had he not been in control. The mere fact, he said, that Mr. Barnes was consulted in regard to such a combination was in itself proof of the leadership of the plaintiff.

Reads Many Letters.
Mr. Bowers read many of the letters introduced in the record, including several taken from the files of the late United States Senator Thomas C. Platt and a copy of one which Lemuel E. Quigg wrote to the colonel before he became a candidate for governor. The Quigg letter among other things counseled Colonel Roosevelt about his future relations with the Republican organization. In concluding his address Mr. Bowers described Colonel Roosevelt as closely following President Wilson as a guide of the nation. Then he referred to his client and his case in this manner:

"Ex-president, ex-governor, the people's true representative. Jurors, will you let him be broken down and destroyed? Stand for him; stand for the people. Give no vote to accomplish the purpose sought by this action. Meet the responsibility that rests upon you with a clear conscience and Theodore Roosevelt will remain a power for good."

OVERRULES MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL OF PUBLISHERS OF MENACE

Judge Holds "That the Roman Catholic Church is Not on Trial" and That "The Question is Whether the Defendants Have Violated the Penal Code."

Kansas City, May 19.—A motion to continue trial of the government's case against the publishers of the Menace, an anti-Catholic weekly newspaper published at Aurora, Mo., was overruled by Judge Arba S. VanValkenburgh in the federal court here today.

The individual defendants named in the indictments, which charge that obscene matter was sent through the mail, are Wilbur F. Phelps, Bruce M. Phelps, Theodore C. Walker and Marvin Brown.

Attorneys for the defense today asked delay in the trial, set for the June term of court in Joplin, Mo., on the grounds that it was necessary for them to go to Rome to obtain depositions of the pope, his secretary and the keeper of the vatican records. By them the attorneys asserted, they would attempt to prove "that Roman Catholic priests were required to take an oath traitorous to the United States government and requiring them to teach against the doctrine of American liberty."

In his ruling Judge VanValkenburgh held "that the Roman Catholic Church is not on trial in this case" and that "the question is whether the defendants have violated the penal code."

"Were they able to secure testimony of many of the points they have raised," he said "it would not be admissible as evidence."

John Foster of Alexander spent Wednesday in Jacksonville.

EXPECT ITALIAN DECISION TODAY

Despatches State German and Austrian Ministers
Are Preparing to Leave

CONTINUE ATTACKS

Germanic Allies Have Succeeded
In Crossing San River and
Have Occupied Sieniawa

RESUME FIGHTING IN FRANCE

LONDON, May 19.—(9:30 p. m.)—While Italy is confidently believed to be making her final preparations to enter the war on the side of the allies, Austria, who would be the direct object of her attack, is with her German ally, attempting to inflict such a defeat on Russia that she will be able to divert troops, if necessary to meet the new foe in the south. Despatches from Rome continue to be somewhat contradictory but the majority agree that the Italian government has definitely decided on the side of war, that the German and Austrian ministers are preparing to leave Rome and that the consul generals of those two countries, either, already have left their posts or will soon do so. On the other hand a message coming through Paris says that Austria has submitted new proposals which she hopes will induce Italy to remain neutral. A definite announcement is expected from the Italian foreign office before the chamber of deputies meets tomorrow.

Continue Massed Attacks.
Meanwhile the Austrian armies, in conjunction with those of Germany, continue massed attacks against the Russians who are attempting to form a new line behind the river San, both north and south of Przemyśl and west of the Vistula river, in southern Poland. These attacks according to the Austrian and German reports have met with their greatest success north of Przemyśl, where the Germanic allies have succeeded in crossing the river and have occupied Sieniawa on the western bank.

They also claim to have captured some positions southeast of the former Austrian fortress, while their heavy guns are keeping up a bombardment from the west. In southern Poland their progress is not so marked the Russians having had strong forces concentrated at Ivanogorod, which they were able to bring into the field and check the advance.

It is stated from Petrograd that the Germans and Austrians are using between thirty and forty army corps on the 200 mile front from Opatow, in Poland, to Kolomea in eastern Galicia. East of the latter city in Bukovina, the Russians have broken the Austrian extreme right and are reported to have again occupied Czernowitz, the capital.

Resume Fighting in France.
The sudden break in the lull in France, which had been bright and dry, stopped the fighting on Monday but it has since been resumed at several points. Between Arras and the coast and in the Wever, it appears as though the attacks which the allies were delivering have ended and that the allied troops are consolidating the ground gained and awaiting German counterattacks. They are not likely to be idle long, however, as the fighting must be continued for the purpose of relieving the pressure on the Russians.

Steady progress by the allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula is reported, although they apparently have not yet captured the Turkish positions which break the way to the narrow of the Dardanelles. An unofficial despatch reports the landing of fresh troops on the Asiatic side of the straits, a move designed, doubtless to prevent the Turks from sending any more reinforcements from the eastern to the western side.

German submarines which have not done much execution since the sinking of the Lusitania, have claimed another victim in the British Steamer Drumcree, which has been sunk off the Cornish coast. Such incidents, however, do not greatly trouble the shipping men. Normal Hill, secretary of the Liverpool Steamship Owners association, today pointed out that during the month of April cargoes to their value of $114,000,000—pounds sterling, were carried in and out of ports of the United Kingdom, while the value of the cargoes destroyed by the submarines was $5,000 pounds or one shilling in one hundred pounds.

TO STOP RACING DURING WAR.

LONDON, May 19.—(11:30 p. m.)—Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, announced tonight that the Jockey club had complied with a request by the government to stop racing in Great Britain after this week for the duration of the war, except at Newmarket.

Jacksonville is at last a road district and the new commissioners and clerk have ideal offices—no more with nothing to do. There are no funds available now and will not be until next year and meanwhile the officials have no duties other than to think about improvements for 1916.

The bill to abolish the Jacksonville school charter and thus have the schools here operate under the general law passed the senate yesterday by a unanimous vote. It is to come before the house some time this week. Meanwhile it is passing strange that a number of local citizens who have opposed the general law in the past now favor that system for our schools. And it is equally to be wondered at that there are citizens reputed in the past to believe in the general law who now look with scant favor upon the movement to secure its benefits.

If the proposed law is enacted the Jacksonville school system will be in accord with the general educational plans of the state. It should result in no wholesale changes in the local schools, only a strengthening of any places that may be weak and in more efficient organization for the accomplishment of better things in education as the years go by.

Back to Fundamentals.

Many matters of national importance in the Presbyterian church are up for settlement at the 127th general assembly of the church, which opened in Rochester, N. Y. today. Nearly 900 commissioners of the church from every section of the country will be present.

One of the features of the convention is the call issued by Dr. Alexander and others prominent in the church for a getting back to fundamentals and the emphasizing of the integrity and authority of the Bible. It is expected that the dispute between the assembly and the Union Theological Seminary of New York will be settled at this session and the status of the seminary definitely fixed. A committee has prepared a statement of facts in the controversy. The assembly will also be asked to settle the status of Rev. Percival H. Barker of Newark, who was twice tried in Kansas on the charge of falsehood. A new board of education will be suggested to the assembly.

During the year ending March 31, $2,287,076 was contributed for foreign missions. The mission board consists of 4,512 workers, maintaining 809 organized churches and aiding many others.

Cutting Down Expenses.

The penny-wise and pound-foolish policy of an administration that saves at the spigot and wastes at the bung-hole was illustrated again last week when the Treasury Department made an order placing 4,000 janitors, char-women and similar employees on an eight-day furlough in order to save a small portion of their already small pittance. Thus the Democratic pledge of economy has the beginning of its fulfillment.

The order which has been made applies to every Federal public building in the United States, for the care of all of which $2,650,000 is appropriated. The burden of the saying that the administration proposes to effect falls upon those who perform the service of sweeping, scrubbing, cleaning cuspidors, etc.

Naturally, the inauguration of this discriminating and unfair scheme of economy has aroused a storm of criticism against the administration. The policy is particularly condemned because the administration has been extravagant in so many other respects where economy could have been practiced without detriment to the public service and without injury to individuals. For example, in numerous instances where the last administration had employed special counsel to conduct litigation in various parts of the United States, the present administration, without any charge of inefficiency, dismissed the attorneys who were conducting the cases and employed other attorneys who would necessarily have to study the facts and familiarize themselves with the law, such attorneys being employed in some instances at higher salaries than the experienced men were receiving and without any apparent reason for the change, other than that the newly employed ones were "deserving Democrats."

Making Important Decisions.

In the June Woman's Home Companion appears an article entitled, "The Man Who Wanted to Die." It is the story of a young man, twenty-four years of age, who suffered from such physical and nervous depression that he could not accomplish anything. He was unable to find out what ailed him until he fell into the hands of a wonderful physician who discovered that he was suffering from auto-intoxication. The doctor put him on a diet and aranged his exercise and rules of living with the result that in time he got into good condition. On the subject of making important decisions at night the doctor suggested that he adopt the following simple rule:

"Never think about anything very important after six o'clock; and never make a decision at night. You are a different man in the morning from what you are at night. Every man is. You leap with a bound in the morning over difficulties that at night are insurmountable. You'll find your outlook on life ever so much brighter if you make all your important decisions before noon."

And in a certain Jacksonville restaurant there is a placard which reads, "Keep pleasant until 10 o'clock each morning and the rest of the day will take care of itself." The theory behind this motto is that the average man is not in a very good humor for the first few hours of the morning and if he can pass by the ten o'clock period without quarrels or hasty speech that he will have no trouble for the remainder of the day. With many a man it is true that the morning is the "touchy time" and that good humor grows with the day.

So it would seem that for many men it would be good advice "Never make important decisions in the morning," all of which leads one to believe that there is no hard and fast rule for making decisions or doing anything else in the average life. Conditions vary with the man and while it will be admitted that good health and the physical condition do have much to do with judgment of mankind, yet many people are brightest in the morning while others do not get thoroughly awake until later in the day. Make decisions whenever you feel the best and make them right if you can.

The Itney Question.

Certain statements made by Judge Thompson of the Utility commission at the hearing Wednesday gave some little color to the belief that the opinion of the commission is that itney service constitutes a public utility and properly comes under the jurisdiction of the board. The opinion, whatever it may be, will be of widespread interest since no state utility commission has previously tackled the problem which is now confronting the street car systems all over the country.

Where a itney service comes into competition with a street car system it seems fair to assume that it should be subject to control by the same body that controls the street car lines. A street car company, must necessarily make a large investment, performs a public service and also has some rights which must be respected and protected. A itney service must operate along the public highways and is therefore properly amenable to regulation. Following the rule previously laid down by the commission that competition is only advantageous to the public where service has been inadequate or charges so high it seems likely too that the commission will make some limitations of motor service so that it will be rendered to districts not served with transportation rather than to districts accessible to the street cars. Certainly for districts not served by street cars motor service at the low rates maintained in Jacksonville and other cities is a great accommodation and convenience and should be enlarged and continued in so far as consistent with justice and equity to all parties concerned.

MISS CORINNE SHARP HUGHES APPEARS IN GRADUATING RECITAL

Gives Original Adaptation of Novel "Peg O' My Heart" Before Large Audience at Woman's College.

In spite of inclement weather a large and appreciative audience which filled Music Hall at the Woman's college to its capacity greeted Miss Corinne Sharp Hughes in her original adaptation of J. Hartley Manners' "Peg O' My Heart."

While Miss Hughes has appeared a number of times before a Jacksonville audience during her years at the Woman's college, she never appeared to better advantage than in this her graduating recital; and the afternoon was one of unalloyed pleasure. The refined instinct, the artistic judgment and taste have seldom been so well demonstrated in the school of expression recitals. The fine intellectual grasp of the reader was demonstrated in her clear comprehensive interpretation of the human interest throbbing through the homely philosophy of the story. Mention should be made of the unified, clear coherent adaptation of the novel into which Miss Hughes delicately inculcated the spirit of the play. The force, the spirit, the bustle, the inimitable humor and courage of an abused and storm driven people, are made to live forever in the person of Peg, Miss Hughes' personality, simple and piquant—in a most unusual manner fitted the heroine of the novel and "Peg O' My Heart" came to life before the audience.

While her work as Ethel Chichester deserves especial comment, and there was seen clearly the egotistical, self-centered English aristocrat in Alaric; the helpless, dependent English woman in Mrs. Chichester, the wholehearted, honest Englishman of the opposite type in Jerry, it was in Peg that Miss Hughes scored.

The beautiful flowers and artistically decorated stage added their necessary touch to complete the picture.

Miss Hughes is a pupil of Miss M. Louise Gleckler, the head of the department of expression of the Illinois Woman's college and much success is sure to follow her in her chosen profession.

CRIMINAL DOCKET IS SET IN CIRCUIT COURT WEDNESDAY

Three Prisoners Plead Guilty and Are Sentenced, Two to Terms in the Penitentiary and One to the County Jail—Six Cases Set for Trial.

The criminal docket was set in the Morgan county circuit court Wednesday and nine prisoners were arraigned. Three of these pleaded guilty and the cases of the other six were set for trial the coming week. Two of those who pleaded guilty were sentenced to terms in the penitentiary and the other to a term in the Morgan county jail.

Oscar Stewart, charged with burglary and larceny, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Southern Illinois Penitentiary until discharged by due process of law and to pay costs. Thomas King, charged with burglary, also pleaded guilty and was given a similar sentence.

John L. Baxter, charged with assault with intent to murder, was arraigned and, the charge having been reduced to assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve a term of six months in the county jail and to pay costs. At the direction of Judge Burton precedence in the criminal cases, was given to those where the defendants are already in jail, the judge announcing that other duties would probably keep him away from Jacksonville after next week until the third or fourth week of June. By agreement of attorneys the first case to be heard on the return of Judge Burton in June will be that of Frank Nunes, charged with the murder of his father, Antonio Nunes.

The cases set for hearing next week follow:

Monday, May 24.

People vs. Frank Downes, murder.
People vs. James E. Rawlings, Belle Rawlings, Wilse Hettick, Eva Hettick and W. S. Denham, arson.

People vs. George Williams, highway robbery. F. L. Gregory was appointed attorney for the defendant.

Thursday, May 27.

Branner vs. William Jones, assumpsit, occupied the attention of the court Wednesday. By agreement the case was heard by the court without a jury. Other court orders entered Wednesday follow:

PACIFIC MAIL MAY QUIT BECAUSE OF NEW LAW
San Francisco, May 19.—The Pacific Mail Steamship company, operating nineteen vessels under the American flag, and considered one of the biggest of American steamship lines, is holding a stockholders meeting today, at which it will be decided whether the line will tie up its boats and go out of business. It has been announced by the vice president of the line, R. P. Schwerin, that all sailings after Nov. 2 have been cancelled, pending the decision of the stockholders. The officials of the line claim that the new seaman's law, passed by congress, which goes into effect on November 4, is the cause of the suggestion that future operations cease.

The Pacific Mail at present operates with Chinese crews in its trans-Pacific traffic. The officials of the line claim that the added cost of operation under the new United States law would make continuance impossible. Five of the nineteen vessels of the fleet operate between San Francisco and Honolulu; Japanese and Chinese ports and Manila.

VOTE ON BIG COPPER MERGER.
Butte, Mont., May 19.—The stockholders of the Anaconda Copper Mining company will hold a special meeting at the Washee smelter today, to consider the proposition of decreasing the number of shares and doubling their par value. This is generally believed to be a necessary move in the consolidation of the Amalgamated and Anaconda companies, which has been gradually worked up. The Anaconda will be the holding and operating company under the merger plan. By doubling the par value of the Anaconda stock, from $25 to $50 a share, it is expected that the market value of Amalgamated and Anaconda will be about the same. It is also proposed at today's special meeting to increase the number of directors from 7 as at present, to 9, and electing two of the directors from the Amalgamated to the board.

AMERICAN OIL TANKER CUSHING ARRIVES AT PHILADELPHIA

Captain Submits Report Dealing with Attacks Made on Ship by a German Aeroplane.

Philadelphia, May 19.—Captain Lars Larsen Herland of the American Oil Tanker Cushing, arrived here today with his ship and submitted to his employers a report dealing with the attack made on the Cushing on April 28th, by a German aeroplane which dropped three bombs, one of which struck the rail of the vessel. In his report, the captain refers to the bomb dropping as a "dastardly act, a deliberate attempt to sink an unarmed vessel and murder the members of the crew."

A copy of this report will be forwarded to the state department at Washington.

The German airmen swent in narrow circles over the tanker, trying to get directly over the funnel with the idea, apparently of dropping a bomb down it and wrecking her engine room. The crew, at first swarming on deck, quickly beat a retreat to the forecabin and no one was hurt by the explosion of the bomb which did strike the Cushing.

The attack occurred while the vessel was about 25 miles from Antwerp and eight miles from the Northlander Lightship. It was near 7 o'clock in the evening but the sun had barely touched the horizon and there was ample light for the officers and crew to see every detail of the attack and also for the pilot of the bi-plane to see the words "Cushing, New York, United States of America" painted on each side of the vessel in letters eight feet high and to note the stars and stripes at the masthead and the tail-rail.

On her return journey from Antwerp to this port, the Cushing grazed a floating mine in the North Sea off the English port of Deal. Clever seamanship by the first mate, Charles Christopher, who was at the wheel, enabled the Cushing to avoid this mine but by such a narrow margin that though the stern of the vessel touched the mine, it struck so gently that no explosion followed.

NOTABLE AT MOHONK CONFERENCE

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 19.—Special attention is paid this year to the Lake Mohonk conference, because of world conditions with which it deals. Prominent thinkers have been gathering here for a score of years for discussion of the best methods of preserving the peace of the world. The conferences have all tended to aid the beneficent results of the international peace conferences, which were shattered during the past year. That the principles of peaceable arbitration will finally prevail is the sentiment of the 21st annual conference which was opened today by John Bassett Moore of Columbia University, formerly counsellor of the state department.

The consideration of the position of neutrals in the present European situation will be one of the lively topics, it is expected. There will, however, be no discussion of the causes and conduct of the war in the way of direct criticism of specific policies or acts of any belligerent.

Among the speakers will be: Hon. Lindley M. Garrison, secretary of war; Simeon E. Baldwin, former governor of Connecticut; Dr. L. S. Rowe of the University of Pennsylvania; Andrew Carnegie, and Dr. Charles W. Eliot. A generous sprinkling of diplomatic representatives of South American republics gave the conference this year an international aspect.

Special subjects include the "Possibilities of Pan-American Influence for Peace," and the "International Regulation of Armaments."

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

MAY DAY OBSERVANCE AT STATE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS CARRIES OUT OLD CUSTOM.

Pagenat Representing History Present and Future Promise of Schools—Will be Subject This Year—Marks Innovation in May Day Program.

For seventeen years University girls have given each May a May Pole dance or gymnastic exercises with some central theme.

Since 1905 this affair has been held Thursday evening of intercollegiate week on Illinois Field. From this time, too, the Senior girls have been appearing in a body at the exercises. It was made for them an occasion of greeting and farewell.

During the last two or three years from five to eight thousand people view this interesting pageant, composed of several hundred girls in costumes of many colors.

The money collected from the small charge for admission has been used to construct tennis courts and bowling alleys for the girls. The next project in view is to obtain an artificial ice-rink for the girls to use in winter.

This year, the pageant is to represent the history, present development, and future promise of the University of Illinois and its surrounding community.

The scene opens with the Indians, supreme rulers of our fertile fields, arranging their wigwags, and preparing the evening meal. At the end of the day, the braves gather around the council fire, worship the Great Spirit or review the events of the day by symbolizing the scouting for good hunting, or joining together in a war dance.

GERMINATION TESTS AND FACTS IN REGARD TO SWEET CLOVER

Agriculture Extension Department of State University Gives Interesting Facts.

(By W. P. Miller, Agriculture Extension University of Illinois.)

The table given below will show the percent of germination obtained in treating sweet clover in different ways:

No treatment ..... 29
Sulphuric Acid ..... 87
Saturated lime solution ..... 37
Scratching ..... 78

Sweet clover may be used for hay but it is considered coarser and not as easily cured as alfalfa, however. Last summer in my experiment I clipped the plants on July 3rd leaving about three or four inches of stubble and on October 1st, I cut the sweet clover. The stems were about twenty inches or more in length, fine and cured into excellent hay. The last cutting the first year may be made close to the ground as it is not necessary to leave any top to go into the winter as in the case of alfalfa.

The second year one crop of hay and one of seed may be harvested but the first crop should be cut before any bloom appear and the stubble should be at least six inches high or the plant will die and no seed will be produced.

It is probably best to cut the hay in the morning before it is entirely free from dew as the leaves shatter easily. A side delivery rake may be used to put the hay in wind rows, which should be put in cocks in the afternoon and left in this manner for two or three days to cure.

The yield of sweet clover varies, but two to four tons per acre is considered an average yield. The ordinary binder may be used for cutting the crop for seed, if it is not too ripe.

The bundles may be run through the threshing machine which will knock out the unhulled seed which

INFECTIOUS DISEASE CAUSE OF WARFARE

GERMS ARE TRANSMITTED BY BLOOD-SEEKING INSECTS.

Typhoid Fever and Pneumonia Are Conspicuous Among Constitutional Infections Diphtheria Antitoxin Has Proved Its Effectiveness.

(By John M. Dodson, M. D. University of Chicago In University of Illinois Health Series.)

It is evident that germs which are transmitted by blood-seeking insects, must circulate in the blood of the infected individual even though the symptoms produced are apparently local, and the proof that this is so in several instances, is one of the recent advances. Several infections, which we have supposed to be of local character are found to be general or constitutional infections from the start. Conspicuous among these are typhoid fever, and pneumonia. If a sufficient amount of blood—thirty or forty drops—be withdrawn from the veins early in either of these diseases, and be inoculated into a suitable culture medium, pure cultures of the pneumococci or of the typhoid bacillus will be secured in from eighty to ninety per cent of cases. Even in diseases where the effects are apparently confined to deep seated and entirely closed cavities, for example epidemic meningitis, the disease is transmitted to others, conclusive evidence that the infection germs must circulate in blood of lymph, in order to reach and be eliminated through the mucous membrane of the nose and mouth, which Flexner has shown to be the principal avenue.

Very recently Flexner has proven that another closely allied disease—infantile spinal paralysis—from which New York City of late suffered a rather wide-spread epidemic, can be transmitted from one animal to another by inoculation of the diseased spinal cord, and he has also shown in this case that the infectious agent is discharged in the mucus from the nose. The actual germ of this disease has not yet been discovered.

War on Tonsils.
The importance of the tonsils as ports of entry infection has long been known but new and convincing experimental proof is just now being brought forward by several observers, among them Dr. D. J. Davis, a son of Wisconsin, by way who has been examining at Rush Medical college and the Memorial Institute for infectious diseases, the tonsils of persons suffering from rheumatic symptoms. These when removed are found to contain on their surface or deeply in the interior, or both—streptococci whose pure cultures when injected into rabbits, a prompt general infection with involvement of the joints. The tonsils are frequent and important avenues of infection.

When we summarize the beneficent results of the last forty years of accomplishment since Pasteur proved the germ origin of disease, they seem truly amazing in extent and significance. And yet, in a considerable list of diseases, undoubtedly infectious in character, the search for the moribund germ has so far been without avail. In small pox, chicken pox, measles, German measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, hydrophobia, and others, the actual germ has yet to be controlled. Nevertheless, much has been gained in knowledge of how to limit their spread. For small pox, once the most dreadful scourge the world has known, and the ravages of which have been so graphically portrayed by Macaulay, a perfect prevention is provided by vaccination whose general introduction we owe to Edward Jenner, a little over a century ago. In Germany, where vaccination has been rigidly enforced for many years, small-pox is practically unknown.

Diphtheria Antitoxin.
To the effectiveness of the diphtheria antitoxin allusion has already been made. It has reduced a mortality of from twenty-five to forty per cent, to one of considerably less than five per cent, when the serum is promptly and properly used. By the purification of drinking water, and the efficient regulation of milk and food supplies, typhoid fever has been all but eliminated from Berlin, Munich and other German cities where it was once as prevalent and fatal as it is today in some of our American cities. Of cholera, which used to invade the civilized world, at frequent intervals, we have had no epidemic outside the Orient for some years, and we seem not likely to have another.

Mrs. C. A. Gridley, wife of attorney Gridley of Virginia, is a guest at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wyatt, 872 Grove street.

In growing other crops.
In an experiment carried on at Tost, Germany, sweet clover sod, not fertilized, produced fifty-one bushels of oats per acre and on soil untreated the yield of oats was thirty-four bushels per acre.

I believe we are safe in saying that sweet clover is the greatest soil renovator and fertilizer known today.

The fact that sweet clover is rich in food value, makes good pasture that is not easily injured, grows luxuriantly and thrives on a variety of soils and under great differences of climatic conditions, makes it one of the greatest forage crops known.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Cheering crowds carried British and French flags through streets of Milan yesterday. A telegram from Innsbruck states that a strong new Russian army coming from Bessarabia is driving back the Austro-Hungarian forces in Bukovina and is marching toward Central Galicia with the object of joining the principal Russian army in Galicia.

A telegram from Saloniki says the Germans have lost 43 officers and 600 sailors in fighting at the Dardanelles during the last six days. In the vicinity of Constantinople trains have been stopped owing to the shortage of coal. No food supplies are reaching the city and distress is increasing.

Berlin, May 19.—Via London—(5:50 p. m.)—The following announcement was made today at the war office:

"Western theatre of war: On the eastern bank of the canal north of the Ypres fighting developing in our favor: south of Neuve Chapelle a British attack made after a heavy preparatory artillery fire was repulsed. On Lorette Heights we took some enemy trenches and two machine guns. A French attack against the southern part of Neuville broke down under fire with the heaviest losses for the enemy.

"In the forest of LePretre the French attempted to break through shortly before mid-night but were held back by our artillery.

"Eastern theatre of war: Further enemy forces were brought up yesterday on the Shavli-Fraunburg sector. North and south of the Niemen fighting continues.

"Southeastern theatre of war: The Russians yesterday attempted by counter-attacks to check our troops which pressed forward across the San, but all these attacks failed with heavy losses to the enemy. A division composed of Hanoverian and Oldenburg troops have during the past two days made 7,000 prisoners in the fighting at the crossing of the San. They also took four cannon and 28 machine guns. "Between the Pilica and the upper Vistula and southeast of Przemysl, fighting continues."

Paris, May 19.—(10:40 p. m.)—The official communication issued by the war office tonight says: "Very inclement weather prevails, with a very thick mist and there has been no action during the day on any part of the front.

"The Germans last night attempted an attack in the forest of LePretre but were immediately checked by our fire."

London, (May 19.—(8 p. m.)—

An official announcement by the British war office in connection with the appeal of Lord Kitchener, secretary for war, for men for the army, states it has been decided that recruits enlisting into the regular army for the duration of the war shall be accepted up to the age of forty years and that the minimum standard height for such recruits shall be five feet, two inches, for the infantry. This decision applies also to enlistments into the territorial force.

Vienna Via London, May 19.—(9:55 p. m.)—The following Austrian war statement was given out here tonight:

"The Teutonic allied troops who advanced to the east bank of the San river (Galicia) yesterday, repulsed across the Lubaczowka river strong Russian forces which offered resistance northeast of Joroslau. We captured Sienawa and forced a crossing of the San, taking 7,000 prisoners and eight guns. Early morning counter attacks were repulsed in stubborn fighting.

"On the upper Danester river and in the district of Stry the fighting is proceeding. Our attacking columns stormed several Russian positions on the heights north of Sambor and captured places which had been defended obstinately by the enemy.

"On the Pruth line there is nothing important to report. In Russian Poland fighting in the hilly district of Rieloc."

man forces his way, not for purposes of greed or malice, but upon a holy mission, that of inspiring the red man with the spirit of peaceful human relationship. Thus the friendship of the Indian is won and together they share the soil.

The English soon came up from the south to take possession of the land. They drive the Indians out, and express their joy in their new land with its promise of great fertility in a careless early English dance.

The call of the rich soil has been heard by many and every year as spring gaily arrives, the farmers plant their crops. The gentle rains pour softly over them and the sun beams forth its radiance until the seeds sprout and grow, and the land is covered with corn and flax and grain.

Soon the harvesters, with their scythes and rakes make merry in the fields, or when all the crops are gathered, they tell in pantomime how to reap the flax.

With the establishment of a permanent community, education finds its rightful place. The spirit of knowledge, attested by Learning and Labor, calls into being the greatest glory of the community, Our University.

The College of Liberal Arts and Science, clad in stately robes and bearing her emblems, approaches and proceeds with a classic dance. First, with all its potent energy, which the College of Engineering so wisely controls, comes next.

A waving cornfield, perfect and free from blight, is the gift of the College of Agriculture to the people.

With dignity and pride the lawyers take their place.

Lastly in comes the Spirit of Play, bringing joy and recreation into the University, and at her call all manner of sports and games enter, gaining their rightful recognition from Knowledge.

Encouraged by the present prosperity, Knowledge looks into the future for even greater development and riches, a realm of happiness in which her loyal subjects bear to her the flower and fruit of their talents. As the dancers scatter flowers and petals over the grass, so shall the flowers of contentment, peace and prosperity be scattered throughout our whole land.

BUCKEYE LEAGUE

in turn may be run through the clover huller if we desire hulled seed. However, it is not necessary to hull the seed if we expect to plant it. Five to twelve bushels of seed per acre may be produced.

Mr. F. C. Grannis, County Advisor of Will county, say "In a letter just received from a friend near Gardner we learned that from not quite fourteen acres, nine thousand pounds of sweet clover seed have just been hulled. From another patch of 8.8 acres, four thousand, five hundred and ninety pounds of seed were taken, and from a five acre patch the yield was four thousand, one hundred pounds of seed."

Sweet clover in some respects makes a better pasture than any other legume. After it gets a good start, stock may be allowed to run on it from early spring until late fall without killing it out and if a few plants are allowed to go to seed, it will re-seed itself and continue year after year. Tramping does not seem to have a bad effect, in fact, it seems to help keep a good stand.

It seldom, if ever produces bloat and in this respect it is different from other legumes. Cumarin which gives the bitter taste to sweet clover, is supposed to be the substance which keeps it from floating animals.

At first stock as a rule do not like the taste but when they become accustomed to it, they will pick it out in preference to any other pasture plant. This is illustrated by the following: A doctor in northern Kentucky, who raised large numbers of mules, put a stack each of sweet clover, alfalfa, red clover and timothy in the feed lot and the mules ate them up in the following order: sweet clover, alfalfa, red clover, timothy.

In the second years' growth sweet clover makes an earlier pasture than any other plant. I do not believe that any other plant will pasture as much stock per acre as sweet clover.

C. E. Deutscher, Davenport, Iowa, says: "We had a ten acre hog pasture that was full of it; we have had as high as one hundred and twenty hogs pastured on it all season and they did not keep it down."

It has been claimed that it affects the flavor of milk, but W. B. Quarton, Algona, Iowa, when asked said, "None whatever, and I have tried it to a finish, both as green pasture and as hay."

Sweet clover has long been used as bee-pasture and in some places was introduced for this purpose. The honey is very clear and of fine flavor. Like all other legumes, sweet clover has the power of producing bacteria on the roots which can take the nitrogen from the air and change it into nitrates, which can be used

MRS. MEDILL McCORMICK WILL

SPEAK ON WOMEN AS CITIZENS

National Leader in Cause of Suffrage to Appear Next Monday Evening at David Prince School Auditorium.

Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago, national suffrage leader and speaker of note, will make an address to citizens of Jacksonville next Monday evening in which she will bring out interesting facts on the subject of "Women in Politics".

Mrs. McCormick was instrumental in securing the present partial suffrage for Illinois women and none is better qualified to discuss the question from the three-fold space of city, state and nation.

A daughter of Mark Hanna, the famous political leader of McKinley's day, Mrs. McCormick is upholding her father's name for energy and political sagacity with the great difference however, that whereas Mark Hanna stood often for the conservative and reactionary, the daughter in all her views is more progressive. Of ample means, she is not compelled to labor for daily bread, but no soldier fights harder for the cause in which she is enlisted.

Mrs. McCormick is a good speaker and all who heard her at the Pittsfield convention will wish to do so again. She will tell how suffrage was secured in our own state and will give the standing of woman's enfranchisement in other states of the union, not neglecting the efforts being made to secure full suffrage by amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

OLD DAYS REMEMBERED AT ANGEL FAMILY RE-UNION

Mrs. Susan Angel Observes 88th Birthday Anniversary, Recalling Pioneer Times in Morgan County.

Pioneer days were recalled Wednesday afternoon, May 19, when sixty relatives, neighbors and friends observed the 88th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Susan Angel, 240 Webster avenue. Mrs. Angel has lived in this county since 1837, and thus stands to the forefront among those who helped lay the foundation stones of Illinois and the middle west. She lived when comforts and conveniences were few, when strength and hardihood prevailed against want, necessity and the obstacles of nature.

Mrs. Angel was the daughter of John and Mary Moss Smith of Central, Tenn. When their daughter, Susan, was ten years old Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Morgan county, settling north of the present site of Joy Prairie. After a few years in the Ebenezer neighborhood they moved to Indian Creek where Miss Susan was married to John Angel, Jan. 4, 1844. Mr. and Mrs. Angel went to housekeeping in the Indian Creek neighborhood where six of their children were born. They then bought the "home place" at present owned by Charles Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Angel had in all fourteen children, eleven of whom arrived at mature age. Mr. Angel passed away in 1901.

The ranks of those who were pioneers in Morgan county are growing sadly thin and only a few remain who know just what it meant to bring up a family in those early days. Sheep were raised by each settler. The wool was shorn, woven into clothing for the boys and girls by the housewife and only the carding was done away from home. Housekeeping was simple in those times, when vacuum cleaners, telephones, electric lights, automatic and other labor-saving devices, so-called, had no existence in the remotest recesses of imagination. When grandmother went visiting, she would mount the saddle-mare with one child behind and the other in her lap.

Mr. and Mrs. Angel were at first members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. In later years their children united with Ebenezer Methodist church, then near their home, and the parents joined that congregation too.

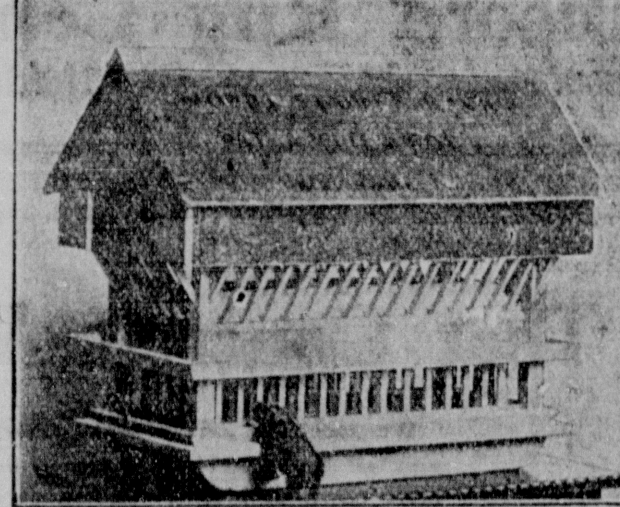

Mrs. Angel is "Grandma" not only to her thirty-six grandchildren, but to ninety-five great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren as well. Six of Mrs. Angel's children were at the anniversary: Mrs. Mary E. Cully, 659 South Diamond street; Mrs. G. H. Jordan, Noweagua, Ill.; Mrs. S. W. Black, 826 West College avenue; John Angel, Decatur, Ill.; and Mrs. Charles W. Martin. A letter was read from the oldest son, Thomas, who resides at Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Ada Richheart, a granddaughter, residing in Louisiana, sent a beautiful box of Magnolias and Bermuda lilies. Mrs. William McElfresh, an old friend and wife of a former pastor of Mrs. Angel, was present as were the following from out of the city: Henry Bridgman, a son-in-law, Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. William Bridgman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridgman, Moweagua, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Angel, Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Angel, St. Louis; Mrs. G. H. Jordan, Moweagua; Mrs. J. S. Swander, Terre Haute, Ind.; and Mrs. Mary Yeck, Concord.

For several years Mrs. Angel has had the loving care and ministrations of Miss Caroline Skinner, whose cheer and friendliness is brightening the sunset of a long and useful life.

Payton Henry of Murrayville spent yesterday in the city.

JITNEY CASE IS NOW BEFORE COMMISSION

MANY ILLINOIS CITIES AWAIT DECISION JUDGE THOMPSON WILL GIVE.

Main Point Relates to Jurisdiction of Utility Commission Over Motor Transportation.—If jitney is classed as utility certificate is necessary as authority for operation—Street Railway Losses.

As the result of the proceedings brought before the Illinois Utilities commission by the Jacksonville Railway & Light company, directed against L. F. O'Donnell and the Motor Transportation company, the whole question as to the jurisdiction of the commission over jitney service is in the balance. The hearing occurred Wednesday in Springfield before Judge Owen P. Thompson, and the state-wide interest there is in the result was evidenced by the fact that city officials were in attendance from Joliet, Rock Island, Moline, Danville, Springfield and some other points.

After the taking of evidence the hearing was adjourned for two weeks, at which time attorneys for the railway and light company and for Mr. O'Donnell will make their arguments. As indicated by Judge Thompson, the sole question at issue is as to whether or not the jitney service is a public utility and thus under the jurisdiction of the commission. Judge Thompson mentioned in the course of remarks at the close of testimony that the commission had taken the stand that motor busses in Chicago operating in the park districts are under their jurisdiction, and in this instance a certificate of convenience and necessity was issued. He stated that the commission had taken the stand that where a utility was giving adequate service at a reasonable cost that competition would not result in benefits to the public.

In the Jacksonville case the first point must be as to the jurisdiction of the commission, and if the motor service here is declared to be a utility, it will then be necessary for application to be made to the commission for a certificate of convenience and necessity in accordance with the terms of the act which created the Illinois utilities commission. It will then be necessary for the applicant for the certificate to show cause why the same should be issued, and to give evidence that conditions of transportation here are such that there is a public need and demand for the jitneys.

Street Railway Losses. In the course of evidence the railway and light company set forth that since the establishment of the motor transportation service here on March 28th and through a period ending May 14, the number of passengers handled by the street railway was 24,167 less than during the same period in 1914. The records are kept of the number of passengers handled daily, including transfers. The record shows increases on certain days by comparison with the same dates last year, but the total quoted above makes allowance for such increases. It developed in the course of the testimony that three cars are in constant service under the direction of Mr. O'Donnell and a part of the time four cars, and that the daily earnings of each car vary from $5 to $11. V. B. Green, of Champaign, appeared for the railway and light company, with J. F. Knowlton of Peoria and John M. Butler of Jacksonville. Mr. O'Donnell was represented by T. J. Condon of Springfield.

Two View Points Outlined. Mr. Condon at the opening of the case intimated that he would ask for a continuance unless it was the understanding before the hearing commenced that no ruling should be asked for on that date. He stated that Mr. O'Donnell had been advised that he would not need an attorney and that he himself had only been engaged about one-half hour before the opening of the case. With this understanding the hearing proceeded. The witnesses examined were W. B. Miser, L. F. O'Donnell, Elbridge Sibert, George Imgrund, Joseph DeGoveia, Paul E. Newell, Andrew Russell, E. E. Bramble, Ott, Kuchman and L. P. Owen. The purpose of the railway and light company seemed to be to establish that a jitney service is maintained in accordance with a regularly announced schedule; that occasionally cars in the service are operated in such a way as to endanger the lives of occupants and the public in general; that the service afforded by the street railway in Jacksonville is equal to that usually furnished in cities of this size; that if the motor transportation company is to operate that it should be regulated by the commission just as the railway and light company is. No denial is made on the part of Mr. O'Donnell that he is maintaining a motor transportation service, but it is his contention that his operations are confined largely to a territory not served adequately by the street railway system, and further, that the business he is conducting is simply that of a motor car owner through duly licensed chauffeurs. Another point on which the attorneys for the light company laid stress in their questioning was the fact that the motor cars draw patronage in a great measure from the territory served by the railway company.

Some Tax Figures. Supt. W. B. Miser was the first witness and he first answered questions showing that the railway company operates about eight miles of trackage and that the value of the property as fixed by engineers for the utility commission is about $254,000. He said that the first intimation he had of the establishment of the motor car service here was a news item appearing in one of the local papers and that subsequently advertisements of schedules, etc., appeared. He gave tax figures indicating that the railway company in 1906 paid taxes amounting to $1,076, and that in 1915 this sum had increased to $2,556. The total taxes paid during the period mentioned by the railway company was $12,648. He mentioned also special paving assessments of $25,000. Maps were introduced in evidence showing the trackage of the railway company and the routes of the motor transportation. Clippings from the newspapers were also introduced showing the advertisements of the company. Mr. Miser made special reference to the recent athletic meet, stating that 5-passenger motor cars that day carried 10 passengers to and from the college campus, and that the street car service, while adequate, was poorly patronized.

The witness related several conversations he had had with Mr. O'Donnell and stated that his relations with Mr. O'Donnell were entirely friendly and that the present proceedings had been brought simply to settle the general question as to the rights of jitney service. The question of franchise was interjected by a statement of Mr. Miser's and he was asked by Mr. Condon if the railway company had a franchise in Jacksonville. Mr. Miser replied that he could not give an expert opinion as an attorney, but that he believed that the company was operating under a good and sufficient franchise.

One Man Cars. Mr. Miser was asked by Mr. Condon if service to the end of the East State street line had not been resumed only after the motor transportation was commenced. The witness replied that certain changes in operation had made it possible to keep one man on the branch of the track east of East State street. This brought in the question of one man cars as being one of the economic changes made to reduce expenses. Mr. Miser said that he considered this a change which increased the safety of the public and Mr. Condon asked if the witness believed that a car could be more safely operated with one man than with two.

When L. F. O'Donnell was examined by Mr. Green he sought to establish certain facts as to the financial resources of the witness and as to the amount of taxes he paid. A copy of his tax schedule was introduced fixing the value of three motor cars used in the service at $600. Judge Thompson ruled that at this stage of the proceeding at any rate it was not a proper line of investigation, and witness was not required to testify as to his personal financial status. Mr. O'Donnell was asked as to the number of cars he operates, the schedule observed and the receipts from the business. He stated that the chauffeurs who drive the cars are employed at a fixed salary and that the average receipts per car were from $5 to $7. He said that regular service was maintained from 6 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. and that after the latter hour the schedule was variable.

Jitney Chauffeur on Stand. Elbridge Sibert, who has been a chauffeur for Mr. O'Donnell, was the next witness, and he gave testimony as to the exact route he followed and to the average earnings of the car used. He testified that on one occasion he carried 12 passengers in a 5-passenger car, but stated that he drove the car at slow speed. The witness gave the earnings as from $5 to $11 a day and explained that the charges on the regular route were 5c, for one block off the route an additional 5c and with extra charges for still other distances off the regular route. The witness said he had carried passengers who usually rode on the street cars but that usually they patronized jitneys when no street car was in sight. George Imgrund told of instances of jitney service running out to the C. P. & St. L. shops and of the charges made, and

MISS SADIE REYNOLDS COCKING VISITS OLD FRIENDS IN PIKE COUNTY

The following is taken from the Pike county Republican of Wednesday:

"Mrs. Sadie Reynolds Cocking of Jacksonville attended the last day of the Federation meeting and spent a day or two visiting friends—among them Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Smith, Mrs. Lottie Thompson and son Jesse. The latter, with Arthur Sneed of Detroit, boarded one winter at the Cocking home while attending Illinois college.

"Mrs. Cocking is a daughter of the late Thomas Reynolds, who was county treasurer of Pike 1875-77, and up to about 38 years ago he was a prominent Pike county school teacher. She taught at Detroit, Bethel, Goldsboro, near Reny, Hackberry, near Nobo, and the Todd school, then known as Gardner, northwest of Valley city. Among her pupils at Grant were George and Harve Smith, Mrs. James of Sumner Hill, and Averil and Hershel Beavers. While teaching at Goldman she boarded at John Will Dunnaway's and she has a very high regard for Frank Dunnaway, of Griggsville, and Will Dunnaway, who were her pupils. She was married during her father's term as treasurer just after completing a term of school at Bethel, the ceremony taking place in the old Col. Ross brick house which burned a number of years ago. Mrs. Cocking is spending most of the summer on the farm with her brother, Supervisor Will Reynolds and Lee Reynolds, two miles from Perry."

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

SOAKING RAINS PROMISE TO DO MUCH TO STOP HESSIAN FLY DAMAGE

Result is Lower Price for Wheat—Corn and Oats also Show Net Declines.

Chicago, May 19.—Soaking rains that promised to do much to stop damage from Hessian fly west, south-west and to carry the 1915 crop safely through the harvest resulted today in lower prices for wheat. The market closed weak as 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c net decline. Corn showed a loss of 1/2c to 3/4c net and oats of 1/4c to 1/2c.

In provisions the outcome varied from 2 1/2c decline to an rise of 5c. Except for an early upturn due to covering by shorts the wheat market displayed bearishness throughout the day. When the temporary support from shorts gave out, stoploss orders to sell were soon encountered and it was said that some of the unloading was for European account. Aside from the domestic crop outlook, Liverpool quotations were lower, with chances apparently increasing that Italy would enter the war, perhaps tomorrow. Meanwhile there was continued uncertainty as to the character of Germany's answer to the United States.

Disappointment over the smallness of export clearances cut a figure in preventing any material rally by wheat bulls late in the session. On the other hand, primary receipts were large and reserves in some sections, especially southwest, were asserted to be proving larger than had been looked for.

Corn prices suffered from the heaviness of the wheat market and as a result of talk that a heavy movement of corn from the country might be expected now that planting is largely out of the way. There seemed to be no leadership on the bull side.

Oats held up better than other cereals. The reason was a revival of export call at the seaboard.

RICHARD CZERWONKY.

Among the artistic group of soloists who are to appear with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra at the grand Friday afternoon and night is Richard Czerwonky, violinist and concertmaster of the orchestra. But few violinists have established a firmer or greater reputation than this young artist whose fame is as well known in Europe as well as this country. Leopold Schmidt, the famous critic of the "Berliner Tageblatt" showed a true prophetic instinct when he wrote of Mr. Czerwonky's first appearance in Berlin in 1906: "In the Singakademie Hall last night, a young boy of about eighteen celebrated his first triumphs playing Bruch's 'Scotch Fantasia' and the Hungarian Concerto by Joachim, assisted by the famous Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra. A violinist, Richard Czerwonky, whom we will surely meet as a great master in a short time. I think he is a genius. Under the direction of Moser and Joachim he has grown to an excellent artist already. His tone is pure and full of expression and his virtuosity eminent. His appearance is a most pleasant one and his violinistic gifts speak from each phrase. His playing last evening entitles him to the most famous future." Herr Schmidt's prophecy has been fulfilled for since then Mr. Czerwonky, in a concert tour through Germany, Austria, Russia, Holland and Scandinavia and since coming to this country seven years ago, has established a reputation second to none.

constitution (state) of 1848, the clerk of the supreme court was appointed by the court. Since 1848 one clerk has been elected in each of three grand divisions." William B. Warren was appointed for 1845 to 1848. He was elected from the second grand division in 1848, serving until 1855, when he was succeeded by his son-in-law, Wm. A. Turney. Mr. Turney was re-elected twice, serving until 1867. Reverting to the Mexican war, Judge Moses, who was no doubt well acquainted with Major Warren, says: "Gen. Taylor, in his report of the battle (Buena Vista) refers to the services of the Illinois troops as follows. 'The First and Second Illinois, and the Kentucky regiments served immediately under my eye, and I bear a willing testimony to their excellent conduct throughout the day. The spirit and gallantry with which the First Illinois and Second Kentucky engaged the enemy in the morning, restored confidence to that part of the field, while the list of casualties will show how much these three regiments suffered in sustaining the heavy charge of the enemy in the afternoon.' He also makes honorable mention of Lt. Col. Weatherford and Major Warren of the First."

A friend, speaking of Mr. Booth, Col. Warren's son-in-law, says: "Thomas Booth, as a man, Tom Booth as a boy was always a loyal, devoted friend. He never forgot his old college days, and remained Tom Booth to his death. He attended college four years, boarding at Mr. Bulkley's on West State street, and he and Robert were, of course, devoted friends and chums."

Mr. Booth was a tall, handsome young man, with dark hair and eyes. He was lithe in form and graceful in movement.

Priscilla Hitt, referred to above, was a daughter of Mr. Samuel Hitt. He came here from Kentucky, had a farm adjoining the last of the Insane hospital, and died here. He was buried in Jacksonville Cemetery.

In old times some men used to carry canes, owing to poor health or because they were getting on in years. The kind of cane generally used was a pretty heavy stick, with a crooked handle. Col. Warren used such a stick, as did his successor in his residence here, Dr. J. T. Cassell. The funny thing about it was, that instead of using the cane as a support, they almost always had it hanging on their arm.

As stated, Dr. Cassell followed Col. Warren in the old house, until Cassell's death. His family keeping it, afterward, until the property was secured, about 1884, as a site for the State Street church.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF THE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Whereas, by her last will and testament, Nettie R. Goodrick, deceased, empowered me to sell and convey the real estate of which she died seized at public or at private sale, and,

Whereas, it will be necessary in order to carry out the directions of said will to sell the following described real estate, to-wit:

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that at 2 o'clock p. m. on the 22d day of May, A. D. 1915, at the south door of the Court House in Jacksonville, Morgan county, state of Illinois, I will sell and convey to the highest and best bidder the following described real estate, to-wit:

The interest appurtenant to the following described real estate over five (5) feet off of the east side of fifty-seven (57) feet off of the west side of lot six (6) in block sixteen (16); forty (40) feet off of the east side of said lot six (6), but subject to a right of way over five (5) feet off of the west side of said forty (40) feet, all in the City Addition to the City of Jacksonville, Morgan county, state of Illinois, upon the following terms: Cash in hand on delivery of deed.

An abstract of title as conveyed to the deceased may be inspected at my office or by attorney.

Tom H. Buckthorpe, executor of the last will and testament of Nettie R. Goodrick, deceased.

SOME CONSOLATION ANYWAY.

Yesterday was so cold and damp that fires and overcoats were strictly in order and almost every one was uncomfortable. The greatest sympathy is felt for men who have alfalfa to cut for it will not do to let it wait very long after it is ready for the scythe as it will injure the next growth. On the other hand the cold rain is good to destroy young chinch bugs which are just now coming into being and it is hoped that the crop will be well reduced and even extinguished. Generally corn and grass are doing well and wheat never better and six to eight weeks will doubtless see most of it in the shock with anything like favorable weather.

MAY SOON REMOVE COUNTY FROM RESTRICTED AREA.

Morgan county may soon be removed from all cattle quarantine, according to federal authorities who have been engaged in final inspection work.

For a number of weeks the county has been in restricted quarantine area. Dr. A. M. Casper of Springfield and Samuel Savage of Tallula have left the city after an inspection trip in company with Dr. Charles E. Scott.

BAZAR AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL AT MURRAYVILLE.

ICE CREAM FESTIVAL AT SHILOH

The Piano Sale with a $2,000,000 Reason High Prices Brought to Earth!

Terms to Meet Your Pocketbook.

This is a clean straight business proposition, direct from factory to home.

Prices! Prices!

To quote prices tells you very little about the splendid values offered at this "GREAT FACTORY SALE." If we told you about the Organs and Pianos we are selling for $10, $15, $60, $80, $100, $193, $225, and Players at $387, it wouldn't convey much of an idea, because prices printed in a paper on a picture of a Piano mean very little.

Go Straight to J. Bart Johnson

See the prices, the low prices, marked on the Pianos themselves. Then you'll be convinced! Then you'll know what it means to save from $50 to $200.

ELKS AT FOUR COURSE BANQUET

Formulate Plans for State Convention, When Special Train Will Take Members of Lodge and Friends to East St. Louis.

Past exalted rulers of Jacksonville lodge No. 682, B. P. O. E. entertained the Elks of Jacksonville Wednesday evening at a four-course dinner in the club rooms. Talks were made by a number of members and plans discussed for the forthcoming state convention at East St. Louis. Special music added to the evening's pleasure as did the table decorations of pink and white carnations, the gift of Pro. William Heim.

Judge F. W. Burton of Litchfield made an address in which he referred to those principles of benevolence and fraternity for which the order is well known. Jacksonville lodge was instituted July 25, 1901. Since that day it has continually grown in numbers and prestige and the remarks of the visiting circuit judge gave rise to feelings of justifiable pride on the part of the one hundred or more Elks present. Normal Kuykenhall, present exalted ruler, was chairman of the evening.

It is planned to run a special train to East St. Louis Wednesday morning, May 26, over the Chicago and Alton. The train will start at 6:45 o'clock and return at 11:30 o'clock the evening of the same day and will bear not only Elks but their friends and all who wish to avail themselves of the reduced rate.

ANTIGONE OF SOPHOCLES
WILL BE STAGED MONDAY

The continued rainy weather has caused the postponement of the Greek play Antigone of Sophocles, which was to have been given this afternoon, till Monday afternoon. According to the present plan, the play will be given the 26th on the Woman's college campus at four o'clock, as formerly announced and if that day is not auspicious arrangements have been perfected to give it in the Grand Opera House. While the Electra given last year was a fine production the play of this year promises to be of a superior order and the rainy weather has only postponed this much anticipated performance. The seat sale has been unusually good.

DISTRICT CONVENTION WILL BEGIN TODAY.

Many Rebekahs Have Already Gathered from Constituent Lodges.

Representatives of twenty-six lodges will gather this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the first session of the twenty-second district Rebekah assembly in its seventeenth annual meeting. Mrs. E. K. Bradley of Carle Lodge No. 625, the district president, will call the meeting to order. Seventy-five delegates have signified their intention of attending and there will be besides, a number of visitors. Among state officers there will be present Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy, president; Mrs. Mary Crowell, secretary and Mrs. Lora Lathrop, vice president of the Rebekah state assembly.

The sessions will continue throughout the day, tomorrow and a meeting of excellent interest is hoped for. The committee has prepared a good program and nothing stands in the way of a successful session.

COLD IN CALIFORNIA.
That the low temperature of the past week has spread even to the Pacific coast is evident from a letter received by Mrs. Thomas Hopper from her father, Dr. C. A. Briggs of Pasadena, Cal. The weather is much cooler there than usual and snow is visible on some of the lower mountain peaks seldom covered at this season of the year.

HAS ARM BROKEN BY AUTO.
Miss Florence Kneale, 729 West North street, is suffering with a broken arm, sustained Tuesday evening in cranking her Ford automobile. Dr. F. A. Norris attended the injury.

Miss Minnie Bally of Kempton, Ill., an aunt of Miss Kneale, is a guest at her home for a few days.

JITNEY CASE IS NOW
BEFORE COMMISSION

Joseph DeGoveia testified as to persons he had known or waiting for long periods for jitney service.

The Auditor's Past Ride.
Paul E. Newell, auditor for the railway and light company, testified that he rode in a jitney Sunday evening May 16 and on Monday, May 17. He testified that on Monday evening he took passage in the car about 9 o'clock, rode around the regular route and out toward Nichols park, with four of five other passengers. He said that while on Webster avenue the chauffeur drove at a speed of about 35 miles an hour, and that on West College avenue at a point near the homes of Judge Thompson and Mr. Miser that the chauffeur, who was then going at a slow rate of speed, took a drink of whiskey. When he completed the ride he asked the chauffeur for the charge and paid him $1. The purpose of the testimony evidently was to show that cars are not operated with proper care for the safety of the public.

Big Loss of Patronage.
B. E. Bramble, who is general auditor of the McKinley system, testified as to the decline in passenger traffic in Jacksonville. He stated that from the period March 23 to May 14 inclusive that the total decrease in passengers handled was 27,346. On certain days there were increases of 3,179, making the total loss of passengers for the period 24,167.

State Treasurer Andrew Russell appeared as a witness and his testimony was to the effect that while a jitney no doubt furnishes occasional convenience, that the street car service of Jacksonville can be properly accounted as equal to that in the average city of this size. Otto Kuchman, local superintendent for the railway and light company, testified that in a number of instances jitneys parallel the railway lines and that no special precautions are taken at crossings for the safety of the passengers or the public. L. P. Owen on the stand stated that his family because of their location at the corner of Caldwell street and Lafayette avenue frequently patronize the jitneys, but had sometimes complained because the service was irregular.

Mr. Miser was recalled at this point to testify that the days on which the street cars receipts were bad during the period since the jitney service was established were occasioned by bad weather conditions.

Mr. Condon sought to show that dull business conditions probably accounted for some of the loss in traffic, and Mr. Miser testified that business conditions were practically normal in Jacksonville, as it is not classed as an industrial community. This concluded the testimony and both Mr. Condon and Mr. Green stated their understanding that the finding in the case must be based on certain sections in the act creating the utility commission by which it must be determined whether or not the commission has jurisdiction over the question.

Arguments to Come June 2.
It was agreed that arguments shall be made before Judge Thompson on Wednesday, June 2. As that date is two weeks hence Mr. Green sought to have the commission enter some sort of a temporary restraining order in connection with the jitney service. Mr. Condon objected to this proposal and said that it was not in accord with his understanding when he opened this case in the morning session.

Judge Thompson ruled that to enter a restraining order would have the effect of deciding the whole case, as to enter such an order would be equivalent to taking the position that the commission has the jurisdiction which the railway company is asking. Judge Thompson also called attention to the fact that the law states that only a corporation can apply for a writ of convenience and necessity, and he also mentioned the past ruling of the commission wherein has been laid down the policy that only where service is inadequate and not supplied at a proper price is competition advantageous to the public. He mentioned, too, that the commission has previously settled the matter of placing the motor busses in Chicago under their jurisdiction.

From the general trend of Judge Thompson's remarks and from the testimony given, the majority of those in attendance at the case drew the inference that the commission finding is very likely to be that a motor transportation company operating under a definite and fixed schedule becomes a public utility within the meaning of the act which created the Illinois utility commission. If this is the ruling in each community, the question of necessity and convenience must be settled separately, and it is likely, therefore, that such restrictions will be placed upon motor transportation that its service will be largely confined to territory not already served by established street railway systems.

SPEAKER ON HAWAII AT NORTHMINSTER CHURCH.

Bernard Camara of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, who is in the city for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sardina, spoke at the midweek service Wednesday evening at Northminster Presbyterian church. Although Mr. Camara is a layman, his talk had principally to do with missions and church conditions in the islands. There are many Portuguese in Hawaii and their church at Honolulu is a progressive one. Interest is good and the support given would compare favorably with that of any congregation in the United States.

NIGHT SHOOT AT NICHOLS PARK
DEFERRED UNTIL THIS EVENING

Rain Interferes With State Tournament of Trapshooters But Good Scores Are Made.

Arthur M. Masters, breaking 136 targets out of 150, stood highest among amateurs at Nichols Park Wednesday forenoon, when forty or more marksmen gathered at the local club grounds for the first shoot at the Jacksonville meeting of the Central Illinois Trapshooters league, sixth annual tournament. Homer Clark of Alton was highest professional with a score of 146-150. J. R. Graham of Evanston who broke 144 birds out of 150, stood second in the list. The first day shoot was badly hampered by the rain. Representatives from the other towns in the league arrived yesterday from time to time and at 1 o'clock this afternoon, the team shoot will begin.

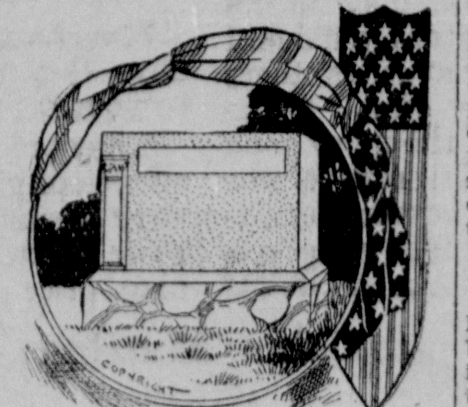

The night shoot was postponed until this evening on account of the persistent rain. No pains have been spared by the local committee for the success of the shoot, and with the concluding event at 7:30 tonight, the tournament should complete a very satisfactory session.

FIRST PRINTING SHOP OF ITS KIND IN THE UNITED STATES

Messrs. Fred Myers and Louis W. Rodenberg of the State School for Blind to Publish Musical Magazine and Print Popular Music.

What is reported to be the first print shop for the publication of a musical magazine and for the printing of popular music for the blind, will be opened in Jacksonville by Messrs. Fred Myers and Louis W. Rodenberg, both of the Illinois State School for the Blind. They have leased the room over Gauze's plumbing establishment on East State street and expect to open up about June 1.

Mr. Myers is formerly of Chicago and is a teacher of the violin at the institution; Mr. Rodenberg is from Chester and is the printer at the school. They expect to publish a monthly musical magazine to be known as "The Music Survey," which will be for all classes of musicians. It will be published both in the Braille and New York points. They already have several subscriptions for the magazine.

They also expect to publish popular music in both notations. This will be a great help to the blind who play in public places and always have to have music read to them. It will be sold at the regular price of other popular music.

Special machinery is being made in Springfield for the plant and the press will be run by electricity. The proprietors secured a special permit from the civil service and also from the state board of administration, to operate the plant, because of its peculiar work. Messrs. Myers and Rodenberg will take up their work again next fall at the school and will put a competent manager in charge of their shop.

FORTUNE MAY BE INHERITED.

W. C. Fleming of Waverly, his sister, Mrs. Etta Shaw of Rock Island, his brother Edward of Delavan and other members of the family are anticipating, or at least hoping, for a pretty good inheritance from the estate of an adopted brother who died in the insane hospital in this city in 1891. His name was Nicholas Sherlock, it seems, and he didn't take the name of Fleming when he became a member of the family. The estate consists of 267 improved lots in the city of Harrisonville, Mo., which are quite valuable and if no will is found it would seem as the Fleming family would inherit the property.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Pleasant Reunion at McCormick Home.

Tuesday, Walter McCormick hitched up his automobile and took with him his cousin, Rev. L. H. McCormick of Dunlap, Ill., the young minister who preached at Westminster church Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCormick and all went out to the home of W. D. McCormick's son, James, southeast of Woodson, and enjoyed a delightful day. It was the fourth birthday of Master Willie McCormick, named for his fond grandfather of this city, and the little gentleman was kindly remembered by his fond relatives. W. D. took from his garden a bountiful supply of strawberries and all enjoyed a feast of good things as well as of reason.

East Side Tuesday Club in Last Meeting.

The East Side Tuesday club held their last meeting of the year with Mrs. George Hocking when a report on the Woman's Federation meeting at Pittsfield was given by Mrs. Ben Lorton. The report was very comprehensive and given in such a manner by Mrs. Lorton as to be unusually instructive and entertaining. Mrs. George Gerlach of Canadian Texas was among the guests from out of town present.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Troster of Virginia, a few days since Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troster, highly respected residents of Virginia, celebrated their golden wedding in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Mr. Troster served through the civil war in Co. A, 14th Illinois infantry, and though 75 years old he is yet hale and hearty. His wife is 72 and a professional nurse whose services are in much demand. Mr. Troster is an active member of Downing Post G. A. R., and takes a lively interest in public affairs. Their son, three daughters and husbands, Mr. Troster's sister and several friends from a distance were present and from various sources many handsome presents were received.

JACKSONVILLE IS DESIGNED SEPARATE ROAD DISTRICT

Like Action Taken by County Commissioners With Reference to South Jacksonville—Comply With Tice Road Law.

A recent meeting of county board action was taken in accordance with the provisions of the Tice road law and Jacksonville was made into a separate road district and listed as No. 14 South Jacksonville was made into district No. 15. The commission could have made both part of district No. 7, but believed it better to have the new territory in separate districts. T. H. Rapp, C. C. Berryman and A. W. Becker were named commissioners and Carl Weber clerk of the Jacksonville road district to serve until next spring when an election will be held. Meanwhile the officials will have nothing to do this season as no funds are available for work. They will meet in September and determine the amount of the tax to be levied and will make their report to County Clerk Boruff. Under the law they can assess as high as 61 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation, but as this valuation in Jacksonville is about $4,000,000, doubtless very much less than 61 cents will be the figure.

Jacksonville lodge No. 570 A. F. & A. M. will hold a stated meeting tonight at 7:30 p. m. Also work Visiting brethren welcome.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE PICKED AS WINNER

LOCAL ATHLETES STRONG BIDDERS FOR BIG MEET.

Coach Harmon and Team Will Leave Friday for Peoria to Participate in Intercollegiate Track and Field Contest—Seventeen Schools Entered.

Illinois college by doubling the number of points on Bradley at the dual track meet held here and trouncing Millikin in a recent meet by a good score, gives promise of winning the annual intercollegiate track and field meet to be held in Peoria Saturday. Coach Harmon has been putting the finishing touches on his athletes and they are prepared to give the leaders a hard race for the coveted honors. Illinois was a dark horse in the race last year, and when the points were totaled was the winner. Can the trick be duplicated this year?

Bradley students are making special efforts to have the meet a big success. A parade will be held in the morning at 10 and it is expected that a large number of business men will take advantage of the event to advertise their business.

Schools Entered.
At a meeting of the coaches in March the Western Illinois Normal at Macomb was admitted into membership and this school will be initiated Saturday. List of the colleges follows: Augustana, Rock Island, Bradley Polytechnic, Peoria, Carthage, Carthage, Shurtleff, Upper Alton, Lombard, Galesburg, Heddington, Abingdon, Illinois Wesleyan, Bloomington, State Normal, Normal, Eastern Illinois State Normal, Charleston, Western Illinois State Normal, Macomb, William and Vashti, Aledo, Eureka, Eureka, Lincoln, Lincoln, South Normal, Carbondale, Illinois College, Jacksonville, Millikin, Decatur and McKendree, Lebanon.

Illinois Men Feared.
The Peoria Herald-Transcript in speaking of Illinois men in the meet says: "A number of men entered by various schools stand out as almost certain winners. Of these Illinois college seems to have the greatest number, giving that school an advantage. Wilson and Smith of Illinois have been making record time in the 880 yards dash, while 'Jude' Frisbie, a former Peorian whose ability is well known, here will represent Illinois in both the 120 high hurdles and the 220 low hurdles. In these races he will have his principal opponents 'Punk' Miller of Millikin, Acker and Cox of Millikin and Helme of Illinois college are the fastest men entered in the quarter mile, as Bryant, the only man of ability, will probably run the half mile instead of the quarter. The men of the conference who have thus far made the best showing with the javelin, the new weight event, which has been substituted for the hammer are Alford of Illinois college and McFarland of Wesleyan. As referee and starter of the meet, H. C. Wilson, athletic director of the Illinois Athletic club of Chicago has been engaged.

MORTUARY

McClure.

Edward McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. McClure is dead at his home in Beardstown, according to word received by Jacksonville relatives Wednesday evening. Though Mr. McClure had been in poor health for some time death was sudden, and his passing will be noted with regret by many friends in this city, where he resided until five or six years ago.

Mr. McClure was a theatrical manager by profession and was about twenty-five years of age. He had been home from a trip but a short time when overtaken by his last illness. His father, Edward C. McClure, is known to railroad men as among the older engineers in the service of the C. B. & Q.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced.

Ball.

Died Tuesday afternoon, May 18, 1915 at his home on South Douglas avenue, Springfield, Ill., Richard Ball.

Mr. Ball was born Dec. 18, 1831, in Brecknockshire, Wales and was one of the fourteen children of Richard McGlothin and Maria Ball. He came to America in 1855 and resided at Virden until about five years ago. His wife, Mrs. Jennie Goss Rauch Ball, died in 1899. He is survived by two brothers, George Ball of this city, Henry Ball of Girard; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Witz of Farmersville, Mrs. Mary Brooks of Kane and Mrs. Agnes Thomas of Springfield.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon from the Presbyterian church at Virden. Rev. George T. Gunter of Springfield officiating. The Masonic order will have charge of the services at the grave.

Mr. George Ball and family have gone to Virden to attend the services.

Niestrad.

Miss Loan Niestrad died at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the family residence seven miles northwest of Arenzville.
